FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Sandy Herp
248.283.5138
SHERP@DADA.ORG

COURAGEOUS PERSUADERS AWARDS CELEBRATION RECOGNIZES HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT-PRODUCED ANTI-UNDERAGE DRINKING COMMERCIALS
STUDENTS WALK AWAY WITH OVER $21,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS

TROY, Mich., May 16 – The Detroit Auto Dealers Association (DADA) hosted the annual Courageous Persuaders Awards Celebration, at which high school students who took a stand against underage drinking won $21,250 in scholarships and awards. The event, which took place on Tuesday, May 15 at the Auburn Hills Marriott Centerpoint in Auburn Hills, Mich. was hosted by renowned Detroit television personality Huel Perkins, anchor at WJBK FOX2.

The DADA is the primary sponsor and administrator of the Courageous Persuaders program, which is facilitated through the DADA Education Foundation. “In my second year of participation in this event, I continue to be amazed and inspired by these talented young people,” said Bob Shuman, DADA President. “They are certainly making a difference with this program, and it’s clear that they will continue to make a difference as they continue through life.”

The competition, now in its 12TH year, encourages high school students to create 30-second television commercials warning middle school students about the dangers of drinking alcohol. The contest drew 1,026 participants who submitted 627 video entries, which included thousands of students from schools throughout the U.S. and beyond.

Two new awards were added this year, the Michelin Award, sponsored by Michelin, and the State Farm Fan Favorite Award from State Farm, selected by Courageous Persuaders fans from the Courageous Persuaders YouTube site. The winner was selected from among the 60 finalists, and the prize is awarded to the school where the video originated. The videos were viewed over 100,000 times.

Student scholarships and award winners:

- First Place, $1,500 - “New Product Infomercial - NO” by Grant Ogden, Eisenhower High School, Shelby Township, Mich.
- Second Place, $1,000 - “Real Fun” by Robert Marrocco, Eisenhower High School, Shelby Township, Mich.
- Third Place, $500 - “is it Really Worth It” by Tess Tuckerman, Lenawee ISD TECH Center, Adrian, Mich.

In addition, special sponsored awards were presented to the following:

-MORE-
2012 Courageous Persuaders Student Awards Celebration, Page 2

- Michelin Award, $2,000 - “Some Things Can’t Be Changed” by Blake Grigsby, Neuqua Valley High School, Naperville, Ill.

- Adcraft Club of Detroit Award, $2,000 - presented to the commercial that conveyed factual information about the dangers of alcohol use in the most persuasive and creative manner: "There Are No Second Chances" by Daniel Cooper, West Bloomfield High School, West Bloomfield, Mich.

- State Farm Award, $1,000 - chosen based on the commercial’s effectiveness on the dangers and consequences of underage drinking and automobile usage: “Numbers” by Ashley Bartreau, Lake Orion High School, Lake Orion, Mich.

- College for Creative Studies Award, a $250 Award and a portfolio or reel review - “Hands” by Nikita Mungarwadi, Clarenceville High School, Livonia, Mich.

- Wall Street Journal Award, $2,000 - chosen by the Wall Street Journal staff from among the most persuasive commercials, as judged by middle school students: "Regret" by Dylan Malburg, Forest Hills Northern High School, Grand Rapids, Mich.

- Wall Street Journal Courageous Leader Award - presented to a special teacher for his or her extraordinary contribution to the Courageous Persuaders program: John Bain of Union City High School, Union City, Mich.

- State Farm Fan Favorite Award, $2,500 to the winning school – “Regret” from Forest Hills Northern High School, Grand Rapids, Mich.

The Courageous Persuaders program was created in 2000 by retired Oakland County District Judge Michael A. Martone and John Barczyk, a local McCann-Erickson advertising executive (retired). In 2007, the DADA became the primary sponsor and administrator of the Courageous Persuaders program through its DADA Education Foundation. This year’s entries continued to be strong, drawing from 41 states, Armed Forces Africa, Armed Forces Pacific and two Canadian Provinces, demonstrating the continued interest in the program.

In addition to the scholarship, the grand prize-winning student receives the opportunity to participate in a professional editing session to make the video broadcast ready. The commercial will be broadcast on the Courageous Persuaders Web site, on television, and will be televised in branches of the Michigan Secretary of State’s Office. For information, and to view the winning videos, go to COURAGEOUSPERSUADERS.COM.

About the DADA Education Foundation

The mission of the DADA Education Foundation is to promote excellence in education through quality programs and leadership. In addition to the Courageous Persuaders program, the Foundation also administers Automotive Education Day at the North American International Auto Show (NAIAS), and the NAIAS Poster Contest.

About Detroit Auto Dealers Association (DADA)

The DADA was founded in 1907 by 17 local car dealers, and has grown to more than 200 member car and truck dealers who donate their time and resources to a host of community activities. Currently, the DADA members collectively employ more than 16,000 people.

Many members participate in the NAIAS, LLC, which is responsible for the production of the North American International Auto Show (NAIAS). The most significant charitable venture of the DADA is the annual NAIAS Charity Preview, which has raised more than $87 million for children’s charities in southeastern Michigan since 1976, of which $36 million was raised in the last seven years alone. To find out more about Detroit Auto Dealers Association, visit dada.org. To find out more about the North American International Auto Show, visit NAIAS.COM.

###

Editors Note – Image of winning students available. Please contact Sandy Herp